

Date and time	Currency	Economic Release	Forecast	Previous	Notes
26-30 th	GBP	Nationwide HPI m/m	-0.6%	0.1%	This is a leading indicator of the housing industry. It measures the change in the selling price of homes with mortgages backed by Nationwide and is released towards the end of the month. A negative figure as is expected could be an early indicator that the UK economy is slowing.
Mon, 26 th 15:00	USD	New Home Sales m/m	321K	300k	This monthly figure is reported in annualized format. It is a leading indicator of economic health because the sale of new homes triggers a wide-reaching ripple effect. Released about 25 days after the end of the month.
Tue, 27th 15:00	USD	CB Consumer Confidence	51.9	52.9	A survey that rates the relative level of current and future economic conditions including labour availability, business conditions and overall economic situation. This figure has been falling in recent months and looks set to fall after Bernanke's speech last week.
Wed, 28 th 02:30	AUD	CPI q/q	1.0%	0.9%	Measures the change in the price of goods and services purchased by consumers. Released quarterly. A figure lower than expected will have a negative effect on the aussie dollar.
Wed, 28th 11:45	GBP	BOE Governor King Speaks			Due to testify along with BOE MPC Members Charles Bean, Paul Fisher, David Miles and Andrew Sentence on monetary policy and financial stability. Can cause market volatility as the market attempts to decipher interest rate clues.
Wed, 28 th 22:00	NZD	RBNZ Rate Statement			Contains the outcome of the interest rate decision which is expected to rise from 2.75% to 3%. There is a range of data out from New Zealand this week with this being the most important and most likely to move the market. Arise as expected would be good for the Kiwi dollar.
Thu, 29 th 13:30	USD	Unemployment claims w/w	453K	464K	The number of individuals who filed for unemployment insurance for the first time during the past week. This data has less significance than similar data from other countries as it is released weekly. A lower than expected figure could be detrimental for the dollar, especially after having a string of bad data from the US.
Fri, 30 th 10:30	CHF	KOF Economic Barometer m/m	2.33	2.25	This index is designed to predict the direction of the economy over the following 6 months. The index is made up of 12 economic indicators. A number higher than expected would be good for the Swiss franc.
Fri, 30 th 13:30	CAD	GDP m/m	0.1%	0.0%	Change in the inflation-adjusted value of all goods and services produced in the economy. Released 60 days after the month.
Fri, 30th 13:30	USD	Advance GDP q/q	2.5%	2.7%	Annualized change in the inflation-adjusted value of all goods and services produced by the economy. The advance figure is the first of three and therefore tends to have the greatest impact.
